Press Release

AAF Analysis Of CRA Repeal Efforts

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | MAY 17, 2017

The American Action Forum released an analysis examining recent efforts to repeal the Congressional Review Act (CRA). AAF analysis determines that the CRA serves as a modest check on outgoing administrations and ensures Congress maintains regulatory oversight. Repealing the CRA would result in a weakening of congressional oversight while simultaneously ceding oversight power to the executive branch.

Click here to read the analysis.