Shining the Spotlight on the FCC: How Rules Impact Consumers and Industries

MARCH 29, 2016
10:00 AM

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has recently issued several contentious regulations, including new Open Internet Rules and spectrum reserves. But, just how will these regulations impact consumers, taxpayers, and the industry? Join the American Action Forum on Tuesday, March 29 at 10:00 AM for an event to discuss the impact of these regulations, and what oversight, if any, is needed to improve the FCC regulatory apparatus, as well as potential reforms to the FCC.
