The American Action Forum released new research examining state-by-state college tuition increases and changes to financial assistance. The research finds that 11 states outpaced the national average for tuition increases. The research recommends enacting policies that increase the availability of dual enrollment programs and advanced placement credits.

Click here to read the research.

Click here to read Summary: “Accounting For The Rise In College Tuition.”