

Events

Changing Course: The Policies Needed To Improve Puerto Rico's Fiscal Health

FEBRUARY 10, 2016
2:30 PM

On February 10th, the American Action Forum will host an event to discuss policy solutions to fix the ongoing fiscal crisis in Puerto Rico. The Commonwealth, which has $70 billion in outstanding debt, recently defaulted on some of its debt payments. Financial Services Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee Chairman Sean Duffy will keynote the event. A panel discussion on solutions to the fiscal crisis, moderated by Wall Street Journal reporter Nick Timiraos, will follow.

Panelists:

Charles Blitzer, Principal, BlitzerConsulting (Former Assistant Director, Monetary and Capital Markets Department, International Monetary Fund)

Barry Bosworth, Senior Fellow, Economic Studies, Brookings

Jorge San Miguel, Chair, Environmental Law, Energy & Land Use, Ferraiuoli LLC

Andrew N. Rosenberg, Partner, Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP

February 10th at 2:30 p.m.

1310 Longworth House Office Building

Food will be provided.