

Infographic

What Was Achieved Using CRA Action This Year?

SAM BATKINS | MAY 10, 2017

Today the American Action Forum (@AAF) released an infographic examining Congressional Review Act (CRA) actions taken this year. According to AAF analysis, these actions have repealed 13 regulations and saved $3.7 billion in regulatory costs and 4,277,890 paperwork burden hours. Read the entire analysis here.

THE CRA

The period of expedited review for the CONGRESSIONAL REVIEW ACT will expire May 11th. That will put an end to the most expansive use of the CRA in history.

14 REGULATIONS
REPEALED
(including 3 major rules)

$3.7 BILLION
SAVED
(from reg costs)

4.2 MILLION
PAPERWORK HOURS
ELIMINATED

Congress and the administration have made a lasting impact on regulations so far in 2017. With more than a dozen CRA resolutions, they have marked the FIRST STEP in an aggressive effort to reform the administrative state.

