

Infographic

The Social Value of Employer-Sponsored Health Insurance

CASEY MULLIGAN, MARGARET BARNHORST | MAY 9, 2022

THE SOCIAL VALUE OF EMPLOYER-SPONSORED HEALTH INSURANCE

The Total Social Value

Employer-sponsored insurance provides significant value to beneficiaries and taxpayers far beyond the cost of the tax subsidy. ESI generates around $1.5 trillion annually in social value.

$1.5 TRILLION

The Breakdown

$800-$900 BILLION

in private surplus to Americans receiving health care

$400-$500 BILLION

in employer profits and tax revenue, net of the cost of the tax exemption

$40 BILLION

in reduced uncompensated care of the uninsured

$200 BILLION

in reduced reliance on subsidized government insurance

For more information, visit AmericanActionforum.org

AAF Infographic breaks down the $1.5 trillion annual social value of employer-sponsored insurance.