

Press Release

AAF Analysis Concludes IRS Paperwork Burdens Cost Americans $170 Billion

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | APRIL 18, 2017

Today the American Action Forum (@AAF) released an analysis examining IRS paperwork burdens. AAF analysis finds that the IRS generates 8.1 billion hours of paperwork, which equates to 11.4 hours of paperwork per submission. Additionally the analysis concludes that the direct regulatory cost of these 8.1 billion paperwork hours comes out to at least $170 billion.

Click here to read the analysis.

AAF also released a new analysis examining how corporate tax reform affects economic growth as well as a new Eakinomics video discussing the need for tax reform.

Click here to view the corporate tax reform analysis.

Click here to view the Eakinomics video.