AAF Analysis Finds Deregulation Proceeds 35 Percent Faster Than Issuing a New Regulation

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | APRIL 25, 2017

Today the American Action Forum (@AAF) released a new analysis examining the speed of regulation and deregulation in light of the president and Congress's deregulatory agenda. AAF analysis finds that while the deregulatory process is procedurally the same, deregulation is approximately 35 percent faster than the implementation of new rules
