AAF Analysis Finds the Keystone Pipeline Could Contribute $3.4 Billion to the U.S. GDP

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | APRIL 12, 2017

Today the American Action Forum (@AAF) released a new analysis examining the impact of President Trump's executive order approving the Keystone XL Pipeline. AAF analysis finds that the Keystone pipeline could contribute $3.4 billion to the U.S. GDP and $55.6 million in total estimated property taxes within its first year of operation.
