AAF Analysis Finds Trump Administration Has Drastically Reined in the Regulatory State

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | AUGUST 8, 2017

The American Action Forum (@AAF) released an analysis examining the progress the Trump Administration has made in slowing down and rolling back the regulatory state. AAF finds that the Trump Administration has imposed 1/20th of the lifetime costs that the Obama Administration had imposed at the six-month mark and has instituted 6 million fewer paperwork burden hours over the same period.
