

Press Release

AAF Examines Private Sector Funded Infrastructure Partnerships

FEBRUARY 2, 2017

The American Action Forum (@AAF) today released research examining the feasibility of private sector funded infrastructure partnerships. The research looks at urban and rural road usage, congestion and investment, and road quality finding that urban areas are more likely to benefit from increases in private sector contributions to infrastructure spending due to higher road usage.

Click here to read the research.