

Press Release

AAF Examines Reforms to Modernize Federal Financial Aid

FEBRUARY 22, 2017

The American Action Forum (@AAF) today released policy recommendations to improve the federal student aid system. The research offers specific reforms that would modernize the system including improvements that streamline income driven repayment programs, provide for student loan insurance, and make adjustments to the Pell grant program.

Click here to read the research.