AAF: National Flood Insurance Program Needs Reform

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | SEPTEMBER 7, 2017

The American Action Forum (@AAF) released a new analysis of the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) that proposes reforms to ensure the program—which is already nearly $25 billion in debt—can remain stable and available for future disasters. The analysis concludes that with Hurricane Harvey’s costs piling up and the NFIP’s authorization set to expire on September 30th, now is the time for Congress to act on reform.
