AAF Research Finds Iran Deal Could Increase Terrorist Financing by $3.1 Billion

AUGUST 5, 2015

The American Action Forum (@AAF) today released new research examining the national security implications of the Iran nuclear deal. The AAF research examines the amount of money that would flow to Iran's government from removing economic sanctions and the potential increased spending on Iran's military. The research finds that implementing the current Iran deal would increase terrorist financing in Iran by $3.1 billion, a 50 percent increase.
