

Press Release

AAF Resources for the Next Coronavirus Aid Package

ANDREW EVANS | JULY 9, 2020

As Congress considers the next coronavirus aid package, the following resources from the American Action Forum assess the impact of past policies and propose a new policy to aid the recovery.

Policies to Encourage Reopening Safely and Economic Growth

Safely Opening the Economy: AAF President Douglas Holtz-Eakin sketches a tax-credit proposal that would encourage businesses to take the steps necessary to open safely, allowing them to operate in the presence of the virus.

Targeted Pro-Growth, Public-Health Tax Policy: To support both economic growth and the public health fight against COVID-19, Congress could improve the incentives for innovative infectious disease drug development, Holtz-Eakin argues.

Assessing the Federal Unemployment Supplement