

Press Release

Media Advisory: Creating Jobs by Ending Regulatory Overreach: The Role of the REINS Act

OCTOBER 16, 2011

WASHINGTON – The American Action Forum will host a discussion on U.S. regulatory burden on Tuesday October 25, from 10:15 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. in the Capitol Building.

The Obama administration has issued more than $80 billion in new and proposed regulatory burdens. The White House even concedes that there are more than 8.8 billion hours of cumulative regulatory compliance. With hundreds of major rules issued each year, Congress has little oversight authority to rescind onerous regulations. The REINS Act (Regulations from the Executive In Need of Scrutiny) would require that all new major rules receive approval from Congress and the President before implementation. Can the REINS Act restore accountability, trim red tape, and promote job creation? Breakfast will be served.

What: Creating Jobs by Ending Regulatory Overreach: The Role of the REINS Act

When: Tuesday, October 25th, 2011 10:15 a.m. – 11:45 a.m.

Where: Capitol Building, HC8

RSVP: To confirm your attendance at this event email [\[email protected\]](#) with the name of the reporter and outlet.

Schedule:

10:15am	Coffee, Breakfast Served
10:30am	Introduction	Doug Holtz-Eakin, President, American Action Forum

10:32am	Keynote Remarks	Congressman Geoff Davis
10:40am	Remarks	Congressman Rick Berg
10:45am	Remarks	Congressman Bob Gibbs
10:50am	Remarks	Congressman Todd Young
10:55am	Conversation	Doug Holtz-Eakin, Moderator Phil Kerpen, Vice President, Policy, Americans for Prosperity Ronald Bird, Ph.D., Senior Economist, Regulatory Analysis, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
11:25am	Q&A Discussion
11:45am	Adjournment

###