Press Release

Media Advisory: Income Growth and Inequality: What is the Reality?

OCTOBER 30, 2011

WASHINGTON- The American Action Forum will host a panel discussion entitled “Income Growth and Inequality: What is the Reality?” on Monday, November 7, 2010 from 12:00 pm – 1:30pm in Hart Senate Office Building, room SH 902. Lunch will be provided.

The Congressional Budget Office’s recent release of a major study looking at income growth and distribution over the last thirty years has reignited the debate over who benefits from a market economy and economic growth, as well as to what extent the Federal government should play a role in income redistribution. ??Our panel of experts will offer their interpretation of the data as well as the factors that have limited economic growth and increased disparity while offering their prescribed policy responses.??

What:	Panel Discussion: “Income Growth and Inequality: What is the Reality?”
When:	Monday, November 7, 2010; 12:00 pm – 1:30 pm
Where:	SH-902 Hart Senate Office Building Washington, DC
RSVP:	To confirm attendance at this event, email with the name of the reporter and outlet.

??Panel Discussion: “Income Growth and Inequality: What is the Reality?”?

12:00 pm

Moderator: Ike Brannon, American Action Forum

Panelists:

Reid Cramer, New America Foundation

Stephen Rose, Professor, Georgetown University and author of Rebound: Why America Will Emerge Stronger From the Crisis and Social Stratification in the United States

Mark Warshawsky, Social Security Advisory Board