

Press Release

Media Advisory: The U.S. Trade Agenda: 2012 and Beyond

OCTOBER 17, 2011

Washington – The American Action Forum will host a discussion on the future of U.S. trade policy on Thursday October 20, from 12:00 p.m. – 1:15 p.m. at the Rayburn House Office Building. Lunch will be provided.

With the passage of the Panama, Columbia, and South Korea Free Trade Agreements it is a propitious time to ask what the next goals of the Administration and Congress should be in this realm. Should we focus on bilateral or multilateral agreements? Can the Doha Round be resurrected? Should our trade focus be on Asia or elsewhere? Would expanding free trade contribute to economic growth or detract from it?

What: The U.S. Trade Agenda: 2012 and Beyond

When: Thursday, October 20th, 2011 12:00 pm – 1:15 pm

Where: Rayburn B-340

RSVP: To confirm your attendance at this event email [\[email protected\]](#) with the name of the reporter and outlet.

Speakers:

- William Lane, Director for Trade and Government Affairs, Caterpillar and Co-President of the U.S. Global Leadership Coalition
- Joe Daniels, Professor of Economics and the Director of the Center for Global & Economic Studies, Marquette University
- Celeste Drake, Trade Policy Specialist, AFL-CIO

###