New From AAF: Eye on Trade & Tariff Watch

ALLISON EDWARDS | MARCH 13, 2019

Trade barriers imposed by the Trump Administration threaten to diminish the benefits of international trade. AAF's Director of Immigration and Trade Policy Jacqueline Varas has created a one-stop shop for you to keep up with President Trump's trade actions and their impact on the U.S. economy.

This new webpage includes AAF's new Tariff Watch infographics, which track President Trump's tariffs and the resulting retaliations against the United States.
