ALLISON EDWARDS | FEBRUARY 12, 2020

It's The AAF Exchange — your source for clear, data-driven insight into today's economic and domestic policy issues.

Our latest episode features AAF's Director of Regulatory Policy Dan Bosch discussing the Trump Administration's latest regulatory budget. Bosch walks listeners through the rules that will have regulatory savings this year — notably the Safer Affordable Fuel Efficient (SAFE) Vehicles rule — and which rules will increase costs. As a bonus, he shares his prediction for the upcoming season of his favorite baseball team, the New York Mets!

Bosch also highlights AAF's Reg Rodeo, a one-stop-shop tracking all regulations, and Week in Regulation, a weekly analysis of newly proposed and final rules.

Future episodes will address other timely policy questions, including:

- How does the federal budget process currently work — and how is it supposed to work?
- What are the fiscal and economic implications of the presidential candidates' key policy proposals?
- What is the current state of trade policy, and what are the areas to watch in 2020?

Whether you're on your lunch break or commuting home, The AAF Exchange will keep you up to speed on today's most pressing policy issues.
