

Press Release

Trump Administration Has Cut $378 Million In Regulatory Costs

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | DECEMBER 1, 2017

Today the American Action Forum released an analysis of regulatory savings under the Trump Administration. The research finds the administration has cut $378 million in regulatory costs, with most of the cost reductions coming from paperwork streamlining and delays in implementation.

Click here to read the analysis.