Trump Administration Sets Ambitious Deregulatory Goal for FY2019

PATRICK HEFFLINGER | OCTOBER 17, 2018

Today the American Action Forum released an analysis of the Trump Administration's regulatory budget for FY2019. The FY2019 budget calls for nearly twice the regulatory savings required in the FY2018 budget. Specifically, the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs projects $17.9 billion in regulatory savings in FY2019. AAF concludes that the Trump Administration's deregulatory success in FY2018 likely influenced the administration's more ambitious target for FY2019.
