

THE FIRST 100

With a firm fixation on the first 100 days in office for the president, it's instructive to compare the regulatory records of the past two transitions.

TOTAL FINAL RULE COST

(CABINET AGENCIES ONLY)

$4 BILLION
OBAMA

$28 MILLION
TRUMP

President Trump's imposed regulatory cost equals 1% of President Obama's - a difference of almost $4 BILLION.

IF DEREGULATORY ACTIONS FROM THE CRA WERE INCLUDED

The regulatory cost difference between President Obama and President Trump widens to $7.6 BILLION.
